VOL. XXVII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1899.

NO. 94

LANCASTER.

Our city will be represented in your town on the 31st to hear ex Gov. Robt. Taylor.

On Monday, Dr. W. L. Letcher sold 10 shares of National Bank stock to Mrs. Catherine Leavel, and 10 shares to Charles Spillman, at $107.50.

On Sunday night the birth of a boy at Dick Ward's gave the republicans one majority, but on Tuesday morning E. W. Morrow reported the arrival of a son at his house, which makes the vote a tie again.

A number of leading democrats expressed a desire Monday to have Capt. I. M. Dunn make the race for representative of Garrard county. He is a typical Kentucky gentleman, intelligent, popular and, above all, a true democrat. His friends claim that he will surely win if he consents to make the race. What say you, captain?

J. W. Miller, master commissioner, made the following sales in the cases named last Monday: Bettis vs. Bettis, &c., 17 acres at $21.50 per acre; Ward, &c. vs. May, &c., 20 acres at $10; Gastineau vs. Gastineau, &c., property, $600; Young vs. Burnam, $200; Miller, &c. vs. Miller, &c., 20 acres at $10 per acre; East vs. East, &c., amount of sale, $681.

The reported deal between Whallen and the L. & N. railway has no more significance than an individual contribution to a campaign fund. The stockholders of a company have a right to choose between candidates, and they are doing right to get in the Hardin band wagon before it is filled to its greatest capacity, which is sure to be done.

Over an average crowd was in town last Monday. There were about 200 cattle on the market and prices were good. James Roberts sold 50 yearling cattle at $22. G. A. Swinebroad sold to T. B. Walker 48 calves at $21.75, and 20 to Jesse Doty at $23.50; also a lot of hogs to W. R. Cook at 3 cents. David Thompson sold eight aged, fat mules for $500. Butcher stuff sold at 2½ to 3½ cents.

The fiscal court convened on Monday and withdrew the order which they had passed at the last meeting and agreed to meet next Saturday to agree upon a plan for working and maintaining the roads. The taxpayers are requested to be present and offer their views on the different plans. They made an order to pay for the roads lying in the county as soon as the deeds are approved by their attorneys.

Cupid's arrows are flying between Lincoln and Garrard counties. On Wednesday, Feb. 1, at 2:30 P. M., Mr. J. Randolph Harris, one of our moral, popular and industrious young men, will be married to Miss Mary, the estimable daughter of Mr. J. F. Cash, at the home of the bride near Turnerville, Lincoln county, by Elder Frank W. Allen, of Stanford. I congratulate the groom and tender the best wishes to the bride in advance, and hope that this union will bind the counties closer together.

Col. W. S. Miller has an open faced silver watch which shows the hour of the day, the day of week and the day of the month. It was owned by the grandfather of Judge T. L. Harris, an old gentleman, who died lately. It was made by John Kendrick, London, Eng., in 1732, and its commercial value is supposed to be $200, while its value, as a curiosity, is far beyond that amount. It is the most historic and attractive relic that the colonel gathered here for the Knoxville museum.

A novel case was tried in the quarterly court on Wednesday. Ed Adams, of Jessamine county, sought to recover a dog from Elijah Cheatum, which the latter detained on his premises for 30 days. A number of witnesses were introduced, a large crowd was in attendance, Letcher Owings was special judge, six lawyers were employed in the case and two Baptist preachers were on the jury. The trial consumed the entire day and the lawyers for plaintiff claimed that he was a good coon dog, and that the hides of the coon that he would have caught if he had not been detained, would have been worth $10. They claimed this amount or the dog. After a few moments deliberation the jury gave the dog to the plaintiff.

The remains of Elijah C. Elliott, one of John Morgan's Confederate raiders, who died at Tipton, Ind., were, in compliance with his ante-mortem request, draped in the stars and stripes and lowered to the grave by the G. A. R. post.

Geo. Hite was hanged in Mecklenburg county, Va., for the murder of a Negro.

MT. VERNON.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Jenkins Williams.

The attendance at both schools is increasing. Students from a distance have entered college.

Bro. Mills, of Junction City, preached here and the church is pleased with his earnest and concise sermons.

Will Whitehead will move to town soon, having bought out Bass Leyevey, who will build again. Mr. W. will also build houses to rent.

Little Miranda White was slightly burned by her clothing catching fire from the grate. Her mother's hands were badly burned while extinguishing the flames.

Mr. Dickey Smith, the oldest citizen in the county, died of pneumonia this week at his home near town. He was an honest and respected farmer, who by patient industry, had laid by a sufficiency of this world's goods to make his last days his best days.

"The Kentucky White Ribbon," State organ of the W. C. T. U., is a neat and well edited paper. It is published at Barbourville, Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp being editor-in-chief. It should be found in every home in the State. The subscription price is only 25c per year.

The marriage of Miss Mae Miller and Mr. J. W. Rider occurred in the handsome parlor at the bride's home Wednesday, 22nd, Rev. L. M. Scroggs officiating. The bride, a noble girl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller Sr., while the groom is a most worthy young man from Upton, Ky. A bright future lies before them and with the love of Christ in their hearts they can bravely face life's battles.

The following are on the sick list: Postmaster Baker, Mrs. Coyle, Mrs. Whittaker, Mrs. Dr. Pennington, Judge Carter, Miss Helen Singleton and Mrs. Judge Colyer. Grip is the prevailing illness. James Adams and Tom Miller are out from Garrard at the bedside of M. J. Miller, who is very ill. A young democratic voter arrived at S. H. Martin's last week. Mrs. L. B. Adams has returned from a visit to Paint Lick. Miss Berda Martin has a fine school at Brodhead. Our thanks are due Editor Maret, of the Signal, for news letter furnished in our absence.

Livingston Items.—The new saw mill of Henry & Cummins has begun work. Mr. Turley, of the firm of Sparks, Turley & Sparks, will reside here. Miss Bettie French is quite ill of grip at the residence of George Cook. Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Roller went to Lebanon Tuesday. Rev. H. N. Faulconer is preaching at the Presbyterian church and is doing much good. Mrs. Goodlin, has greatly improved her residence. Drs. Cooper and Brown successfully removed a diseased — from the infant of Mat Delph last week. There is much dissatisfaction over the action of tax commissioners in regard to property here. The town is just getting started and they think it unjust to raise the value of a house $600 more than owner appraises.

CRAB ORCHARD.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its next weekly meeting on the 28 with Mrs. Mary Patton. All interested in temperance work are kindly invited. Miss Mollie Brooks is president and Mrs. John M. Brooks, cor. sec'y., which means success and perseverance in this good work.

Mrs. Pauline Hays, of Danville, is with her daughter Mrs. Joe McClure. Mrs. Kate Patter, of Manchester, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nellie Redd. Miss Lizzie Gormley, a trained nurse of much experience and ability, is at home for a few days, after nursing Mrs. A. H. Severance, of Stanford, seven weeks. The Misses Albright, of Brookhead, and Mrs. Bolar, of Preachersville, were with Rev. Lambert's family this week. Mrs. Joe Pleasant opened a select school at her home this week. Mr. D. C. Payne has moved to the toll gate property which he lately purchased of the Lancaster Pike Co. Mrs. Kitte King has moved to the property vacated by Mr. Payne.

Well! Well! We are very well satisfied with the good work already accomplished by the Bible reading we referred to in our last. We can in fancy see that Danville correspondent take from the shelf his Bible, brush the dust from its back, open its sacred pages and instead of reading one chapter, actually read two. Then we see him start out for his nearest neighbor and compare Bibles, and another reads:

"Well done thou good and faithful servant." Now turn to Micah 6:8, if perchance, this book is in your Bible, and you will find much to think of there. The whole plan is before you plainly stated. Now please don't think for a moment that I am going through my Bible for the first time, for this is my third venture, but in reading I find so much that will bear re-reading hundreds of times and yet ever new. The former reference was to II Peter, 3:1 to 15.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF LINCOLN COUNTY.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

It has been a custom of the democratic party so long and so universally practiced and adhered to that it can now well be called one of the principles of the party, to reward the faithfulness and fidelity of a public officer, by endorsing him for a second term.

Charles Thompson, of Garrard, and Miss Martha Delaney, sweet 16, were made one at Josh Delaney's yesterday.

James Harris, aged 25, and Mrs. Lou Williams, 45, and with six living children, were married in New Albany, Ind.

George B. Foyle, who travels for a Chicago silk house, was arrested at Davenport, Ia., on a charge of having seven wives.

John Riley, of London, eloped to Jellico with the pretty Miss Dora Phillips, who lives near Pittsburg, and they were married.

Claud M. Sipples, aged 17, and Miss Lola Montgomery, 21, were joined heart and hand at George Montgomery's yesterday.

Chas. Rogers, a Laurel county merchant, eloped to Jellico with Miss Cynthia Denham, sister of Samuel Denham, of Mt. Vernon.

At St. Louis a bride of a week killed herself and left a note saying that she never did love the man she married, but married him to please her parents.

The Lancaster young man who wed a pretty Lincoln county girl next Wednesday, will not only get a most excellent young lady but lots of cash to boot.

At Lebanon, Ind., Mrs. Lucinda Jones was granted a divorce from her husband, after she had proved that he had been drunk 4,680 times in the last 30 years.

Adeline Patti, the sweet singer, is warbling to another husband, the 3d. She was married Wednesday at Brecon, Wales, to Baron Cedstrom, director of the Sheath Gymnastic Institution there.

Admiral Sampson's girls seem to be in demand: The engagement of Miss Nannie, his second daughter, and W. T. Cluverius, U. S. N., has been announced. At the marriage of Miss Sampson's sister and Henry Harrison Scott, of San Francisco, on Jan. 4, Miss Sampson was a maid of honor and Ensign Cluverius an usher.

LIBERTY.

Yesterday was county court and there was quite a crowd in town.

John E. Sharp has taken charge of the Napier Hotel vacated by W. D. Stagg, who is now running the Exchange Hotel in his accommodating way.

R. J. Austin, a Casey county boy, now a pensioner examiner of Washington City, was in town Monday taking proof in claim of Mrs. W. T. Humphrey. James Taylor, representing the Hustonville Flouring Mill, was in town selling flour. Ab Wash, of Lawrenceburg, a nephew of T. W. Wash, deceased, was in town to see after his interest in the Wash estate. George Montgomery went to Lexington last week to attend Kentucky University. John D. Combest started to same place to attend State College.

F. P. Combest, master commissioner, sold at public auction the T. W. Wash farm to James Gibony, T. J. Bell and E. T. Allen for $3,000. Also a half interest in 120 acres of knob land to Mrs. Tabitha E. Dunlap for $175. A seventh interest in the Green Russell farm, near Middleburg, to W. T. Durham for $90.82. F. P. Combest bought of John J. Elliott his 1/6 interest in Exchange Hotel property for $512 cash. W. M. Myers bought of Wilkinson & Allen some butcher stuff at 24c. Wilkinson & Allen bought of J. W. Whipple some fat heifers at 3½c.

ROVER.

THE DEADLY GRIP.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs. Don't neglect the "Grip" if you are open to the air. Pneumonia and consumption are its twin deaths. It gives signs of chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharge from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cold with troches, tablets, or poor remedies. Call in Dr. K. D. New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchial troubles. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00, money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

This from the Georgetown Times tells the tale of them all: According to reports from various counties the turnpikes are in a wretched condition. Some of them are but little better than mud roads. The probability is that people who have to travel them much will soon be forced to the conclusion that free turnpikes are not the great blessing that was expected.

THE RAVAGES OF GRIP.

That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs. Don't be hoodwinked into a false sense of security. You have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. K. D. New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal fits and a stomach constrict you may know you have the Grip, and that you have it. Call in Dr. K. D. New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough head the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00, money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

Calhoun county, Ill., has never had a railroad, a bank or telegraph station within its borders, nor a Negro resident since before the war—that is the war in the '60s.

Mansfield is coining money with his Cyrano de Bergerac. In five weeks he took in $75,000.

Whose prayers and pleadings were all in vain,
Who loved a beast that the world called mad.

Near Colquitt, Ga., James Rustin and his son, Virgil, were shot to death by unknown brutes while the father and son were sitting at their fire.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - JAN. 27, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

SENATOR GOEBEL's speech at Lebanon Monday to announce his candidacy for governor was a red hot defi of the newspapers, the railroads and other corporations, trusts and combines and to the other candidates, especially Gen. Hardin, to whom he doubtless referred when he said: "There is not behind me any political oligarchy that for 30 years ruled Kentucky from Frankfort; that elevated men and pulled them down at will; that held power longer and drew more money from the public treasury than any other set of men that ever figured in the history of the commonwealth, and that received every honor the democratic party could bestow, and finally turned Kentucky over to the republican party." The Senator declared himself in favor of the Chicago platform. It is said that Chancellor Blanton liked to have dropped dead with surprise and that his eyes have not yet resumed their normal condition from the bulge the speech put in them.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Glasgow News declares unequivocally for Hardin for governor.

Gov. Bradley refused to pardon Jas. Ballou convicted in Rockcastle of train wrecking.

The Senate has unanimously agreed to take a vote on the peace treaty Feb. 6 at 3 P. M.

Senator Stewart was re-elected in Nevada after a long struggle. Jack Chin did it.

Col. Colson has at last been officially informed that the 4th regiment will be mustered out at once.

The democratic railroad commissioner's convention in the 1st district will be held at Paducah, Mar. 8.

Gen. John B. Castleman has been honorably discharged from the volunteer army to date from Feb. 20.

Ex-Mayor H. T. Duncan has no opposition for mayor before the democratic primary to be held at Lexington, Feb. 7th.

The Senate decided to consider the peace treaty behind closed doors. The question was warmly debated for three hours.

Capt. W. H. Lyons, formerly private secretary to Senator D'boe, has been appointed a clerk in the war department.

Hon. William Goebel has resigned from the democratic State central committee, of which he was a member from the state at large.

Ex-Gov. C. A. Culberson was elected by acclamation by the Texas Legislature as United States Senator, to succeed Roger Q. Mills.

Lizzie Vaupel, at Morganfield: John S. Miller, at Greenville, and James P. Hutchison, at Owenton, have been nominated for postmaster by the president.

The National convention of manufacturers at Cincinnati adopted a resolution most earnestly petitioning the Senate to ratify the treaty of peace with Spain.

Ex-P. M. General W. L. Wilson denies the interview which made him say he voted for McKinley, asserting that he voted for Palmer and Buckner, which is almost as bad.

Dr. Andrew Seargent, who at present represents Christian county in the Legislature, announced he will make the race for re-election, subject to the action of the republican party.

Capt. H. S. Irwin has announced his candidacy for a renomination for railroad commissioner of this, the 2d district. There are 31 counties in the district, including Lincoln and all in this section.

Paul Cooksey, of Bowling Green, has been appointed Senator Lindsay's secretary. James C. Edwards, of Russellville, who has held the place for several years, has resigned. He is in ill health, and will go to Florida.

Ex-Mayor Todd, of Louisville, has had John T. Tribble, chairman of the Clark county republican committee, indicted for criminal libel for making an affidavit to be used in the Evans-Turner contest, that he heard Todd say that he was working against Evans, and that, although McKinley and the administration were working for Evans, he would be defeated.

With reference to the talk about his alleged effort to secure the appointment as one of the commissioners to the Paris Exposition, Gov. McCreary tells the Richmond Register that while he is grateful to a few over partial friends who have suggested his appointment, he's unwilling to get into a struggle for the place and has not been to Washington to see about it and has filed no formal application for the appointment and does not desire to be considered a candidate for the position.

The Louisville Free Press, republican, does not enter in the great cry of prosperity being at hand, indulged in by its kind, but contends that the present stock-market "prosperity" is not enjoyed by the people. "Farmers are not prosperous. High taxes are eating up their profits. Every sort of extravagance, State and National, is being carried to an outrageous extreme. The public treasury, from the municipal corporation on up to the Federal government at Washington, is looked upon as the legitimate loot of the party in power. A few men are getting rich, and, occasionally, as at present, the railroads are making money hauling cheap crops, and armies and army supplies. When newspapers say that the country—this country, Kentucky, is prosperous, they lie, and, if they are not paid, directly or indirectly, they

THE Louisville Dispatch grows exceedingly hot in the collar and shoots the lie to Col. Bennett H. Young or anybody else, who dares to say that Whallen has secured $26,000 from the L. & N. to buy a certain Louisville paper to fight Goebel with. In fact it accuses Young of lying in almost as many places as Eagan did Gen. Miles and the first thing you know there will be a court-martial in this case also. Young claims Marion as one of the counties sure to instruct for him and the selection of it for his first speech shows that the Covington statesman throws down the gauntlet to him and dares him to toe the line.

IN case of doubt you may always count on the republicans winning, for they are capable of the greatest rascality. After turning out democrats and the latter playing at the same game, a truce was agreed on and the result was that Commissioner of Internal Revenue Scott, the republican nominee, was elected U. S. Senator, from W. Virginia, receiving the necessary 48 votes and no more. McGraw, the democratic nominee, received 46 and Goff one.

EAGAN claims freedom for punishment, because the president had promised immunity to witnesses who testified before the war investigating commission. The result will likely be that the foul mouthed scavenge will get off with a reprimand for his outrageous tirade against his commanding officer, and be permitted to remain in the army, which his presence disgraces.

THE Louisville Commercial got scooped on its intended scoop to bribe the city councilmen, and is shown up in a very bad light, but the effort went far enough to show that Cimatti was anxious enough to sell out for $6,000 to a new telephone company, until he smelled a mouse. The whole matter has a very bad flavor, both of yellow journalism and official rascality.

AN effort is being made to have the next Legislature form a new county out of parts of Scott, Owen and Harrison, with Sadieville as the county seat. It is to be hoped that the scheme will die a-borning. We have enough pauper counties now, without adding to their number as this would.

THE Kentucky monument at Chickamauga will not be unveiled till next May. It is sad to think that the 50 fiery colonels that Gov. Bradley appointed to accompany him thither will have to wait so long to deport themselves and their handsome uniforms.

THE Hon. Charles J. Bronston ought to be ashamed of himself for taking such advantage of the innocent and galling gold bug management of Central University. Chancellor Blanton invited him to the institution to discuss the subject, "Dangers of the Republic and How to Avert Them." It was expected that the Senator's address would deal exclusively in the defects of the constitution and the disregard of its wisest provisions, but not so. Instead Senator Bronston branched off into politics and made one of the red hottest free-silver-16 to 1 speeches ever heard in old Madison, ending up with a eulogy of Bryan and a plea for the Chicago platform. It is said that Chancellor Blanton liked to have dropped dead with surprise and that his eyes have not yet resumed their normal condition from the bulge the speech put in them.

SHOT IN THE HAND.—Perry McLean was shot in the fleshy portion of his right hand Wednesday afternoon. He was walking along the railroad west of town when he claims a Negro, whom he did not know tried to sell him a pistol. He was assured that it was not loaded and after snapping it several times the Negro handed it to McLean, who reached out for it. It was then discharged with the above result. The Negro went his way while the wounded boy sought the services of Dr. Craig.

WALTON.—A message from Virginia tells of the death of James B. Walton, aged 80, father of Messrs. James B. and J. Frank Walton, late of Danville, which occurred on the 24th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sallie Hall, in Gordonsville, Va. His death leaves only two survivors of a family of 12, eight boys, none of whom was less than 6 feet and 1/2 inch tall, and one up to 6.3. The deceased was tall and weighed over 225. He was a life-long Christian and an excellent man in every way.

His lecture "The Fiddle and the Bow," is chuck full of wit, humor, sense and nonsense and has delighted many thousands of people. The Maccabees, who have engaged Gov. Taylor, will devote the net proceeds to buying regalia and ask that all members of the order hereabouts and their friends generally grace the occasion. Admission 50 and 75c.

ARCH JONES, a familiar corner mark in Stanford for many years, died Tuesday night of pneumonia. He was a member of the order of colored Odd Fellows, and passed through life with no more serious charge against him than that he was averse to work. His mother died only a few weeks ago.

PEPPLES.—After an illness of five years, the last 10 months of which he was confined to his bed, Mr. John Pepples departed this life Tuesday, aged 76. His wife, Mrs. Martha Pepples, survives to spend the few remaining years of her life alone. They had no children. Mr. Pepples was a good, honest man and after a long life goes hence with naught against his name. The remains were interred in Goshen Cemetery yesterday.

THE scamp, who burglarized J. W. Baughman's residence and took away a pistol and razor, now languishes in jail. His name is John William Welch and was arrested in Deep Well Woods by Marshal J. A. Shannon. He confessed to the crime and gave the marshal the pistol; the razor, he claims, he let Henry Logan have. Welch is a bad Negro and has been in jail here several times. He worked for Judge Bailey for awhile and an overcoat was missed about the time he left.

HELD FOR SEDUCTION.—The examining trial of the case against S. Thomas Rice, of Burgin, for seducing a woman under 21 years of age, on a promise of marriage, was held by Judge Carson behind closed doors Wednesday and he was held in $300 bail to the circuit court. The penalty is from one to five years in the penitentiary. The wronged girl is Miss Ella Wilder, the comely daughter of Wm. Wilder, and she was delivered of a child in December. She swore that Rice had by promises of marriage succeeded in accomplishing his purpose and that no other man was even particeps criminis. Her mother swore that she was 21 years old last August, which brought the act within the penalty under the statutes. On the other hand the defendant swore that he had never promised to marry the girl, had never had illicit connection with her and that he is physically incapacitated, but the judge said that there was reasonable grounds to suspect Rice of the crime and he held him as stated. W. A. Tribble, Esq., represented Rice and County Attorney Harvey Heim prosecuted. Rice is a jeweler by trade and is a quiet, well-behaved man of about 30 years. We learn of an effort being made by outside parties to have the matter settled by marriage, but Rice says he will in no case agree to it.

TOO MUCH JOHNSON.—A party by the name of Johnson, but not the phrenologist who ran away with Miss Susie Hamm, of Rowland, worked several people in the county and tired his hand on a number of others. He boarded at Uriah Albright's near Crab Orchard, and besides beating his board bill he left with an overcoat belonging to a member of the family. He came to Stanford the other day with a daughter of Albright, whose husband is serving a term for murder, and going with her to Hill & McRoberts' office, asked Mr. McRoberts what it would cost to secure a divorce for the woman, who was Mrs. Nutt. On being told it would cost him about $30, he wrote a check on the First National Bank payable to himself for $50 and went down to collect it. Mrs. Nutt remained in the office, but the fellow skipped, it is supposed. Prior to his effort to marry, Johnson rented Julius Negro's farm between Crab Orchard and Ottenheim to a man named Russell, without Negro's consent and tried to collect rent in advance but failed. He borrowed a small amount of money from a German named Doublin which he still owes. Johnson was anxious to build a church near Albright's and started a fund with the promise of $25. He did many other such things and those who have been fooled or gullied by him are wondering whether he is crazy or a natural born scoundrel. Johnson is about 45, was clean shaven when he left here, of light complexion and about five feet four inches tall.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL

IS. E. K. WILSON FOR MURDER FOLLOWING SEDUCTION.

BROUGHT HERE FOR SAFE-KEEPING YESTERDAY.

The examining trial of E. K. Wilson, ex-county attorney of Laurel, for the murder of Miss Mary Cloyd, was begun at London Tuesday, before County Judge Stanberry and an immense crowd. Wilson appeared with his counsel, apparently trying to look calm and collected, but puffing incessantly at his cigar. His counsel consists of R. L. Ewell, D. K. Rawlings and A. L. Reed. The Commonwealth was represented by Attorney James Sparks, Hon. Ed Parker, H. C. Hazlewood, C. R. Brock, P. F. Stillings, W. R. Ramsey and J. Walker Moren. Mrs. C. J. McLear, landlady of the Catching Hotel, testified that Miss Cloyd had been employed by her for more than two years, and that she believed her to have been strictly virtuous until Wilson's relations began with her, coming up to the time of Miss Cloyd's illness, in the last week of December. Before the doctors and Mrs. McLear the girl made this statement: Over two years ago Wilson began his attentions to her. For about a year he tried to seduce her, and at last succeeded under a promise of marriage. Afterwards their illicit relations were kept up, Wilson continuing to make his promises. About Dec. 22 he induced her to allow him to perform a criminal operation. He had previously given her some medicine, which she took. She was compelled to stay in bed from that time. When the doctors wished to examine her she would not consent until she wrote Wilson, asking him whether she should allow it. He replied in the negative. The note from Wilson was produced in court. Mr. McLear testified that he went to Wilson and told him about it, when he acknowledged that he had seduced her and said he would do whatever the girl said. He tried to make her say that she had used the instruments, but she replied: "No, Mr. Wilson, you know that you did."

When the trial was resumed Wednesday, Miss Sarah Wyatt testified that she found a tube and some medicines in Miss Cloyd's trunk. Dr. Foster swore that Wilson asked him to help him out of the case and when he declined to do so asked him for an instrument with which to perform the operation, which he also declined. Later Wilson told him that he had procured a catheter from a druggist, who recognized the instrument in court. Dr. Pennington said that when he was called he diagnosed a criminal operation had been performed, but the woman refused to permit an examination. She finally consented and he found that the operation had been performed, she told him by Wilson.

Dr. A. C. Foster testified that Wilson asked him about the 1st of December if certain drugs would produce an abortion.

Being told that they would be asked for a prescription but was refused.

Afterwards he told him he was responsible for Miss Cloyd's condition and that he wanted instruments to perform a criminal operation.

The doctor replied: "Do you take me for a fool?

If you attempt that you will kill the woman."

Drs. Ramsey and Pennington testified that Miss Cloyd came to her death by an abortion, which the girl when dying, said was caused by Wilson.

The defense offered no testimony, but argued a motion for bail which was opposed by the Commonwealth in a strong speech by Mr. Ramsey. The judge then announced that he would not allow bail and Wilson was ordered to Stanford.

While Mr. Ramsey was speaking for the prosecution, Bill Williams, a friend of Wilson, sprang toward Ramsey with the words, "You are a G—d— liar."

He was sent to jail. The incident caused much excitement.

Wilson was brought here for safe-keeping yesterday by Sheriff L. B. McGargue. He seems to bear up well under the terrible strain. He asserts confidence that he will get out of the trouble, but did not tell our reporter more than that he would not show his hand till the proper time came. But for Judge Stanberry's hostility to him he would have gotten bail, he says, and he would bring habeas corpus proceeding to compel it, but for the fact that circuit court is but 10 days off. The MIDDLEBURG.

The Georgetown College base ball club wants O. R. Jones, of this city, to pitch for them the coming season.

Hogs are bringing from 3 to 3½c. The wheat out look is encouraging. The farmers of Casey put in an increased acreage last fall.

Capt. George Green delivered a most eloquent discourse to a crowded house at the Baptist church Sunday and again in the evening. The captain brought his newly wedded wife down with him Saturday.

The single-tree fever is now on in earnest and the man who hasn't a patent single-tree is not in it. Casey has representatives selling this article in about 50 counties throughout the State and they are said to be reaping a harvest.

The consolidation of the Middlesboro Herald and Record, hitherto independent sheets of that city, will prove efficacious to the cause of democracy in the old 11th district. The Record will be democratic to the core and we hope it will prove "a power in the land."

W. E. Lucas has just returned from a business trip to Washington county. Mr. M. W. Jones has been battling with the grip for the past few days.

Miss Sallie Eason, of Cornishville, is visiting relatives in Middleburg and vicinity. Mr. John Swope has gone to Garrard county, where he will make a crop. Several of our citizens attended county court at Liberty Monday. Miss Loretta Davenport, of Dunnville, is visiting her parents and other relatives.

The fall term at J. W. I. closes Friday afternoon. There will be no exercises at all as the faculty thought the Christmas exercises would suffice for the season. School will re-convene Monday with Miss Florencio Christopher as principal. Miss Cora Gooch, who has had control of the preparatory department will return to her Somerset home, much to the regret of many friends she made while here.

We differ with Brother B. about the proposed bridge at Liberty. He must be against internal improvement, something that no Caseyite should be opposed to, yet I will admit they have been duped of considerable money in the past few years. But none should object to a bridge at Liberty or elsewhere in the county, after having to put up with the many inconveniences of high water. The county should be taxed to build at least half a dozen bridges. If there is anything that the county is sorely in need of it is the bridging of her streams.

The Fulmen Brutum met Friday night and a most interesting program with but few exceptions was disposed of. In the debate "Resolved that the division of the Protestant religion into the various sects and denominations has been injurious to the interest of true religion," the judges gave the decision to the negative, which was represented by Miss Florence Christopher, Messrs. Alva Lucas and J. R. Staton being her opponents. The subject for debate at next Friday night's session is: "Resolved that wealth exerts more influence than knowledge." Affirmative, Miss Florence Christopher and Mr. J. R. Staton. Negative, Miss Cora Gooch and Mr. Alva Lucas. Last, but not least on the program, is the Liar, the official organ of the society, by Clarence Coleman. It is hoped that all the members will attend and bring some one with them.
